

Name _____
-----
_____

The suffix -sion also has the sound /shun/ when it follows s, n, or l. When it follows a vowel or a Murmur Diphthong, its sound changes to /zhun/.

Lesson 93: Other Suffixes: -TION, -SION, and -OUS

Prove and read the following words. The first word has been done for you.

mission
x | x

impression

permission

expansion

extension

percussion

Following a vowel or Murmur Diphthong, the sound of -sion, /shun/, changes to /zhun/. Remember, i is short before -tion or -sion. Prove and read the following words.

abrasion
x | x | x

inclusion

decision

conversion

incision

submersion