

Lesson 73: Decoding Two-Syllable Words

upset	campus	open	tennis
+replace	+happy	phony	gymnast
plenty	+define	candle	Monday
ruby	jumbo	gravy	+conceal

Our team likes to play tennis on the college campus.

The ruby was not a phony.

Lesson 73: Decoding Two-Syllable Words

athlete	wiggle	canvas	sandy +increase	humble	address	cyclone moment	subject	cement	textile
+locate	+detail	sunny	wisdom

He lost the address to the repair shop. The athlete had his picture taken at the track.

Lesson 73: Decoding Two-Syllable Words

candy	moment	+explain	maintain
+locate	python	rabbit	hyrax
+inflate	hammock	+expand	+happy
kettle	+tidy	ago	eagle

We found a python in the old house. The canvas painting is hanging on the mantle.

Lesson 73: Decoding Two-Syllable Words

hiccup	Friday	sixteen	student fancy	penny	twenty	lobby
dolphin	hotel	+decide	+belong
traffic	trumpet	expect	sentence

Our class will get a new student on Friday. She was asked to play her trumpet in the lobby of the fancy hotel.

Lesson 73: Decoding Two-Syllable Words

symbol mattress princess phony picnic minus +behave focus puppy +happy napkin freedom bungee eagle pickle baby

The puppy behaves well near the baby.
To some people, the bald eagle is a symbol of freedom.

Published by Reading Horizons
ISBN 978-1-62382-156-2

5

Copyright © September 2015

Lesson 73: Decoding Two-Syllable Words

robot gumbo final gymnast respect yummy suppose contest +settle jumble crabmeat +instruct bandage relax python rodent

The yummy gumbo was full of crabmeat and shrimp.
The gymnast can relax when the contest is over.

Published by Reading Horizons
ISBN 978-1-62382-156-2

6

Copyright © September 2015

Lesson 73: Decoding Two-Syllable Words

Egypt tuna pickle princess gentle rabbit digest +humble windy approach humid fancy wisdom recent +amaze zebra

How long do you think it takes a zebra to digest a pickle?
It can be humid and windy in Egypt.

Published by Reading Horizons
ISBN 978-1-62382-156-2

7

Copyright © September 2015

Lesson 73: Decoding Two-Syllable Words

candle happy muggy album
tuna sunny polite inside Sunday sunny +regret sandwich children puddle picnic pony

Each of the children ate a tuna fish sandwich at the picnic.
Last Sunday was a hot, sunny, and muggy day

Published by Reading Horizons
ISBN 978-1-62382-156-2

8

Copyright © September 2015

Lesson 73: Decoding Two-Syllable Words

baby	athlete	recite	digest
cuddle	sprinkle	bandage	absent
hundred	little	rabbit	+engage +tumble	silent	+subtract	sleepy

The little baby was too sleepy to play.
The athlete had a bandage on her hand.

Lesson 73: Decoding Two-Syllable Words

+migrate	equal	sixteen	eagle
climate	table	sequence	advice
became	+intend	happy	princess
+insist	+explain	office	gymnast

Some animals will migrate to a sunny climate.
The gymnast intends to do well at the meet.

Lesson 73: Decoding Two-Syllable Words

upset	attic	album	sentence
+amaze	+relax	happy	napkin
baby	subject	photo	gymnast
+decide	muffin	cyclone	+divide

We found a box of old photo albums in the attic.
The twins decided to divide the muffin in two.

Lesson 73: Decoding Two-Syllable Words

agree	rabbit	tiny	silent
eagle	insect	Friday	+instruct begin	away	kitten	+decay
rattle	easy	except	contain

The vet will instruct us on the best way to feed the tiny kitten.
Some eagles can spot a rabbit from up to two miles away.