

Getting Started Checklist— Kindergarten

This list will help you prepare for teaching your students by informing you of the physical materials we provide. Another essential aspect of preparation is understanding the method, and the best way to do that is by getting started in the Reading Horizons Online Learning (RHOPLC) Course™. For questions contact Reading Horizons at 1-(800)-333-0054.

Direct Instruction Kit

- I have received all of the Teacher Manuals
 - Ch. 1 Ch. 2
 - Games Supplement*
- I have received the posters
 - Alphabet
 - Vowels
 - Blends
 - Special Vowel Combinations
- I have received the Student Transfer Cards
 - Red Yellow
- I have received the 20 full-color Reading Horizons Discovery® Little Books (if applicable)
- I have received my Little Book Teacher's Copy
- Teacher whiteboard
- Dry Erase Markers
- Erasers (socks work great)
- Hang posters
 - Make sure they are in a good spot for students to reference
 - Cover untaught skills with Post-it Notes
- Laminate and cut Student Transfer Cards
- Print Other RHA Resources (Optional)
 - MCW Wall Cards
 - MCWs Flashcards
 - Alphabet Cards
 - Handwriting Verbiage
 - 42 Sound Cards
- Teacher says it twice (students listen)
- Teacher uses kinesthetic cues (in Chapter 1 and 2)
- Students write and mark/prove the word once
- Use the word in a sentence
- Use hand motions
- Students read the word
- Students explain the answer
- Use the Eraser Game to reinforce other skills taught, including phonemic awareness
- Dictate a sentence when appropriate

Preparing Your Classroom

- Gather all additional resources needed:
 - Student whiteboards (could be actual small whiteboards, card stock in sheet protectors, or Cling Sheets)
- I understand The Daily Core 4
 - Review
 - Teacher Instruction
 - Guided Practice/Dictation
 - Transfer
- I understand how to chunk a lesson and use the Lesson Planning Protocol
- I understand the process of dictation

- I have logged into Reading Horizons Accelerate® (www.rhaccelerate.com)
 - Teacher resources
 - RHOPLC modules
- I have logged into Reading Horizons Discovery® www.rhdiscovery.com